Boy Scouts to Deliver Books on CD Preparedness

Boy Scouts of this community and other towns in the area will cooperate in the biggest joint project ever undertaken by the Boy Scouts of America.

On Saturday, Oct. 11, Scouts in every hamlet, county and city in the United States will distribute some 40 million handbooks on disaster preparedness to every home.

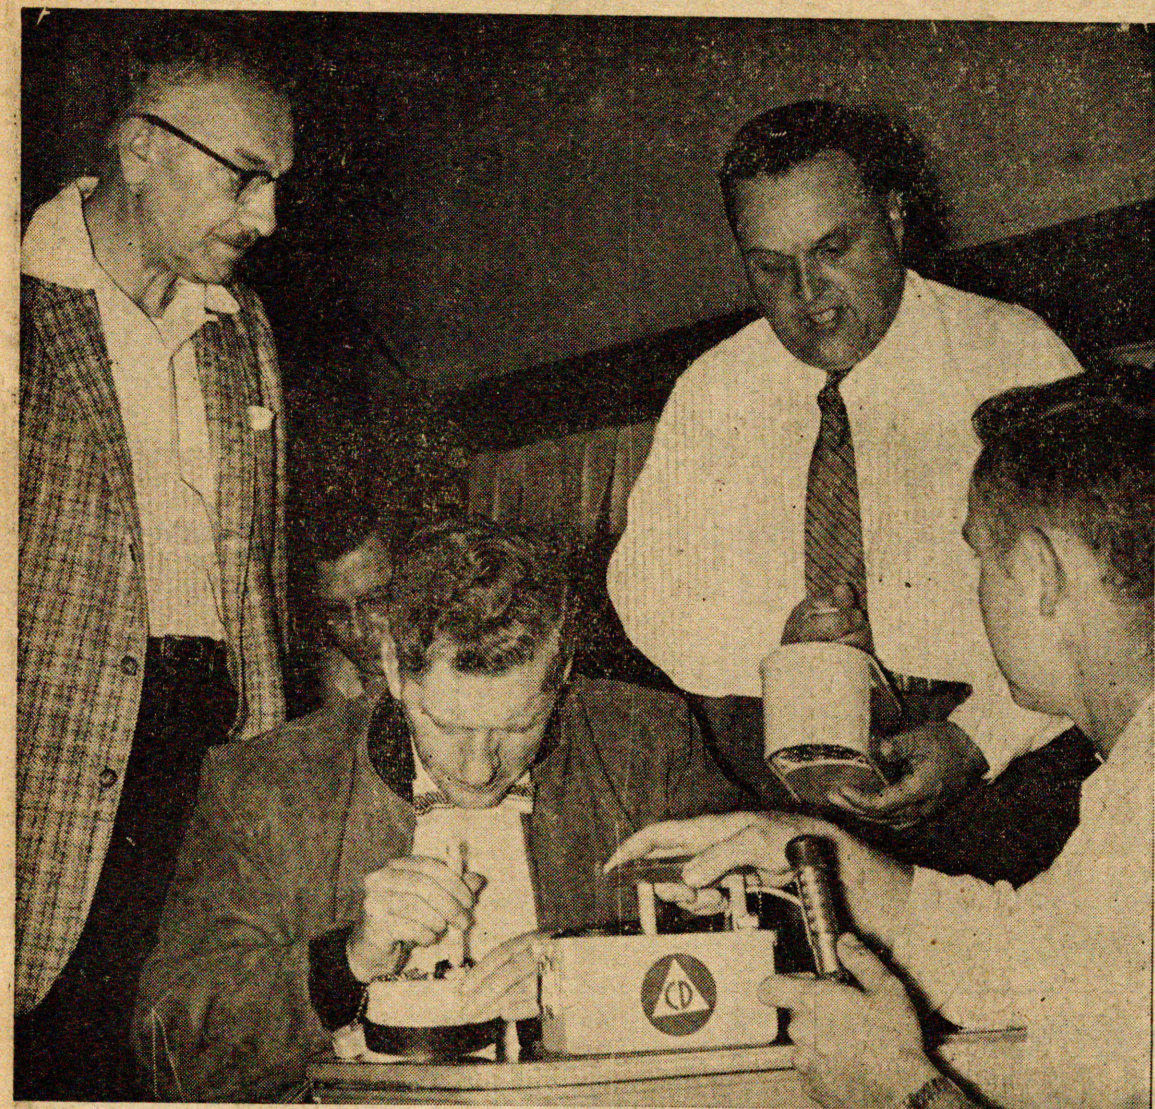

This handbook, entitled, "Handbook for Emergencies," has been prepared by the Office of Defense and Civilian Mobilization (Civil Defense) as a guide to families on how to act in a disaster.

Simply and clearly written with many illustrations, the booklet tells what to do in preventing fire; flood, hurricane and tornado preparations; aid, warning of nuclear attack; administering emergency first aid; protection from fall out; contact with Conelrad; evacuation and shelter. A check list determines if a family is ready for an emergency.

This mammoth safety program is being carried out as one of the observances of the National Safety Good Turn, year long program currently being carried on by Scouts. Specifically, it is the highlight of the third phase of the Good Turn, which is concentrating on home safety.

The basic thought behind the campaign is: if U. S. families are prepared for any disaster emergency, they'll know how to take care of themselves in an extensive national emergency. Disaster preparations are equally applicable under any condition.

The "Handbook for Emergencies" will be handed personally by every Boy Scout to the householder who answers the door. Arrange to be home on Oct. 11. The information he gives you may some day save your life.

CIVIL DEFENSE work is being stepped up in the area as a whole and in Mokena in particular. Several schools of instruction are being started and the picture here deals with a radiological class that is being conducted at Mokena. The men here are checking a geiger counter. Standing at the extreme left is Anthony Dina, CD director at Mokena and at the right (standing) is the instructor, Robert McFadden, of Joliet. Seated facing the camera is Stanley Williams, a Mokena village trustee and at the right, in profile, is another trustee, Charles Hostert. (Marvin Smith Photo)

Riding Show

New Lenox Club to Perform

The New Lenox Riding club will sponsor its 1958 Gymkhana, a play-day on horseback, Sunday, Oct. 12, at the new New Lenox 4-H grounds, on Francis rd., beginning with a grand parade at one o'clock. The 4-H grounds are located one mile north, and 1/2 mile east of the stop lights in New Lenox.

George Lechner of Des Plaines, will be judge of the show; Dr. E. J. Mayer of Plainfield, will be the announcer; Eleanor Beutel and Shirley Myers will be co-secretaries; Dr. R. L. Kleinhammer of New Lenox, the physician; and Stuart Vanderbilt of Peotone, the ringmaster.

4-H members will take part in the morning classes starting at 10 o'clock with a Trail class, Pleasure class, and Pole Bending. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded for these.

For the grand parade all horses present must participate, or be disqualified.

Riders will compete in the following classes: Event 1, Wheel Barrow race; Event 2, Western Pleasure, Jr.; Event 3, Western Pleasure, Sr.; Event

4, English Pleasure; Event 5, Pair class (open); Event 6, Pet class (must have live exhibit, no rideable animal); Event 7, Clover Leaf Barrel race (timed event); Event 8, Shoe race; Event 9, Three-legged race (instructions prior to class); Event 10, Flag race, (timed event).

The entry fee is $1 per class, with no more than one rider, per horse, per class. Trophies and five placings will be awarded winners.

In case of rain, the show will be held Oct. 19.

Sewage Plant for Orland-Palos

The Orland Park and Palos area will soon have a sewage treatment plant, to be erected by the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago. Bids are expected to be let in November. The exact location of the plant has not been determined as yet.

This information was learned from J. M. Mercer, a civil engineer of the Sanitary District when he spoke at the Orland Park Chamber of Commerce meeting Oct. 2.

The area is included in the master plan of the Sanitary District to be completed within the next ten years in which a trunk line will connect the area to the metropolitan system.

Orland Township became a part of the Sanitary District by referendum in November.

The cost to the taxpayers for the treatment plant it was learned, will be less than 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The next meeting of the Chamber will be Nov. 8, when a social evening is planned for members and friends.

Marley Church Marks 125th Anniversary

By VIRGINIA SASS
The 125th anniversary of the Marley Baptist Community church was celebrated with special services in the church on Sunday, Oct. 5. A spirit of reverence, praise and gratitude prevailed as nearly 150 people came in thanksgiving. The spirit and fortitude of the forefathers of the church, which has hovered thru times of prosperity and depression, still exists in the church today.

Among those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Snapp and daughter of Joliet. Mr. Snapp is a great-grandson of Abram Snapp in whose log cabin home in the O'Plain Settlement, the church was organized on Oct. 5, 1833. Other descendants of the Snapp family present were Mrs. Henry Rust of Dodge Center, Minn.; Mrs. M. A. Travis and Mrs. Walter Bridge and children George and Nedra of Elwood; Mrs. Nettie Matthews and Mrs. Raymond Nordstrom and family of Joliet.

Recognition was given to Miss Caroline Tilsy, the oldest active member of the church and to James D. Frazer, who has been an active member of the church for the longest length of time, serving as a deacon since 1916.

Several were present who had attended church and Sunday school services at the Hadley Baptist church and at services which were held in the Marley school building. Among these were Mrs.

Elizabeth Anderson, Mrs. E. D. Gillette, Charles W. Lauffer, John Handorf Sr., Mrs. Harry Long, Mrs. M. A. Travis, Mrs. Louis Sass, Vincent Barney, Mrs. Isabel Francis, James D. Frazer and Mrs. Henry Rust. During the morning service, the Rev. E. L. Hurley, northern area representative of the Illinois State Baptist Convention, delivered the sermon, "The Church on the March." Special music was rendered by Daniel Sass who sang, "My Task" and by a women's chorus, singing "In The Garden". Following the service there was a dedication of the shelter house by Rev. Hurley. The shelter house was erected as a memorial to Miss Agnes Haley, donor of Haley Park. Charles Sass sang a song of dedication, "Bless This House".

The address of the afternoon service was given by Rev. Henry L. Rust, pastor of the First Congregational church at Dodge Center, Minn. Rev. Rust served as pastor of the Marley church from 1916-1921. During this time he was united in marriage with Miss Birdie R. Bowen. The couple have two children, Rev. Henry Rust Jr. of Whittier, Calif. and Janet of Omaha, Neb. He spoke on the topic, "The Sacred Way", relating paths of the past up to the present, stressing the proper guidance of the youth—the church of tomorrow.

James Frazer presided during the retrospection portion of the program. Interesting accounts of the old Hadley Baptist church, the Sunday school in the Marley school building and 1904. On each block of and of the present Marley church were related by Mrs. Isabel Francis of Joliet. Mrs. Sociology at Elmhurst College and former pastor of the Marley church gave a vivid account of the founding of Haley Park and the dedication services of the park on July 4, 1954. Vincent Barney of Oak Park and a former resident of Marley at the time the present church was built in 1900, talked on that period of time and of the construction of the church. Thomas Cooper of New Lenox, only survivor of the workmen who hauled stone from the Joliet quarry for the building, was also present.

A prayer for the past was offered by Rev. Harold E. Finley of Lockport; a prayer for the present by Rev. Roy Hanson, pastor of the Homer Congregational church; and a prayer for the future by Rev. Rust, Rev. William B. Hill, pastor of the First Baptist church of Joliet, read the scripture, Isaiah 35. The welcome and benediction were presented by Rev. Ray Homer, pastor of the Marley church.

Following the service the group adjourned to the dining room for a period of fellowship and refreshments. Many interesting articles, clippings, and pictures relating to the church history were on display. Among these were an old Communion cup and tray and two quilts. One was a friendship quilt made by the Marley Missionary Society in 1903 and 1904. On each block of the quilt was a red embroidered floral spray and the member's name or initials. This quilt, was auctioned at a bazaar, purchased by Mrs. Amos Savage and she presented it as a gift to Mrs. Isabel Francis who was a bride at that time. The other quilt was made by members of the Missionary Society around 1890. It is inscribed in indelible ink in a sunburst pattern with names of members of the Marley Community. The names had netted the Society a profit of $70 and the quilt was sold to Harry Storm for $30. It is now the property of Mrs. Irvin Jensen. She believes that the writing on the quilt was done by Mrs. Archie Barney.

Refreshments were served by a committee of Mrs. Robert Sproat, chairman, Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen, Mrs. C. J. Berg and Mrs. Durward Killinger. The linen covered table was centered with an autumn floral arrangement in rust and gold flanked with slender gold tapers in crystal holders. The decorations of the church poured; Mrs. Charles Lauffer, Mrs. Francis Peterson, Mrs. Loren Sass, Mrs. Charles Sievert, Miss Bessie Sproat and Mrs. Adella Sproat.

The anniversary committee was composed of Rev. Ray M. Hamer, pastor; Mrs. Edward Sproat, chairman; Mrs. Adella Sproat, Mrs. Loren Sass and James D. Frazer.

Mokena, Frankfort Turn to Experts for Development of Area

"A village or city must grow or die and to grow in an orderly manner, it must have professional planning." This was a point made by Mr. Carl F. Muehlenbruch to a crowd of about 125 in St. Mary's hall, Mokena, last Thursday evening. Mr. Muehlenbruch is head of Educational and Technical Consultants, Inc., the firm chosen by Mokena and Frankfort to make up a land use map, building code and subdivision regulations for the areas controlled under the laws of Illinois.

Mr. Muehlenbruch was the guest speaker for the monthly meeting of the Mokena Lions club and, due to the wide interest in the subject of Village Planning, it was decided to invite the public.

For the introduction of Mr. Muehlenbruch, George Bills, president of the Mokena Lions club, turned the meeting over to Maurice P. Angland, chairman of the Mokena Plan commission.

At the outset of his talk, Mr. Muehlenbruch emphasized that to be successful, any community planning must have the cooperation of a majority of the people in the areas covered. He pointed out that the purpose of planning is to achieve orderly growth in a manner which will bring the "greatest good to the greatest number."

With the aid of detailed maps, he explained orderly growth and how such orderly growth protects property values of homes which touches the pocket book of most people. "The investment in their homes, will represent a large part of the total life savings of many people."

In answer to a query from the audience as to why such villages cannot remain as they are and avoid much further growth, Mr. Muehlenbruch stated that the population surge toward this area is something that cannot be stopped even if desired. He said, "you will have the opportunity of controlling the type of industry and population you want under scientific planning or haphazard growth thru location of undesirable industries in the area and resultant creation of slums with all that this entails."

He explained that the usual

NIKE Host to Civic Leaders on Anniversary

Dignitaries from Mokena, Tinley Park, and Orland Park will join with representatives of the 22nd Artillery Group (air defense) Friday afternoon to commemorate the 41st anniversary of army air defense. Col. A. W. Masters, group commander, announced Thursday that three Nike-Ajax guided missile sites will be hosts to civic leaders from throughout the group's defense area. He also said that three sites, including the Orland Park site (on 153rd st., two miles west of route 45), will be open for public inspection during the afternoon.

The group's celebration is part of a nationwide program to commemorate 41 years of air defense training and practices of the United States army. Air defense has, since 1918, grown from small-caliber machine guns mounted along trenches in France to sleek, swift, lethal guided missiles such as Nike-Ajax and Nike-Hercules.

Interested citizens may view the Orland Park site from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday. Capt. Edward Fye is site commander.

Other sites participating are those at Homewood and Gary.

Hold Funeral Rites for Second Of Train-and-Auto Crash Victims

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Iona Hart, 47, second to die as a result of a grade crossing accident Sept. 23, were conducted yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Frankfort Methodist church. The Rev. Ben F. Day officiated and burial was in Skyline Memorial Park, Chicago Heights.

Mrs. Hart died Sunday, Oct. 5 at Silver Cross hospital just a week after the crash that cost her life and that of a son, William D., 17. The car in which she was riding, driven by the boy, was struck by an E. J. & E. freight train on the old Briggs street crossing, southeast of Joliet.

The driver was hurled under the train and instantly killed. Mrs. Hart also was thrown out of the automobile. She suffered compound fractures of both legs and both arms as well as internal injuries.

She was enroute to visit another son, Charles, who resided about 50 feet from the scene of the crash. Mrs. Hart is a native of Iowa and came to Frankfort about five years ago with her husband and family. They lived at Frankfort until nine months ago when they moved to Lincolnwood.

Besides her husband, Carl E. Sr., and the son Charles, Mrs. Hart also is survived by another son, Carl Jr., and a daughter, Bernadine, Mrs. Albert Bettenhausen, also of Lincolnwood; three sisters, Mrs. Creola Blubaugh, of Melrose, Ia., Mrs. Sarah Thorne, of Chariton, Ia., and Mrs. Betty Martinache, of Des Moines, and two brothers, James McCoy, of Rockford, and George of Des Moines.

Removal was to the Baskerville chapel on Lincoln-Highway at Robert st., New Lenox. The body was taken to the Frankfort church yesterday noon and lay in state until 2:00 o'clock when the services were held.

Funeral rites for the son were conducted at the same time a week ago yesterday.

Death Claims Naomi Butzen

Mrs. Naomi Butzen, 53, 131 Central rd., New Lenox and who operated Mrs. Butzen's Kitchen in New Lenox for a number of years, died Saturday, Oct. 4 in St. Joseph hospital, Joliet, after a brief illness.

She and her husband and family moved to New Lenox from Chicago in 1931. She was past president of the Auxiliary of the Harry E. Anderson VFW Post in New Lenox and a member of the Oak Leaf Royal Neighbors.

Surviving is her husband, Edward; four sons, Edward, Frank and John all of New Lenox and William of Paramount, Calif.; three daughters, Miss Yvonne, Mrs. Anthony (Louise) Rauth and Mrs. James (Rose Mary) Lauderdale, all of New Lenox; her father, Franklin Oakley, and a sister, Mrs. Sylvia Alvis, both of Worth; and a brother, Franklin D. Oakley of Carpenterville; and eight grandchildren.

Removal was to the Baskerville funeral home at New Lenox. Funeral services were held at St. Jude's church Tuesday morning with burial in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Joliet.

Utility Company Cites Dangers of Posters on Poles

The use of utility poles as "bulletin boards" creates a hazard for linemen of Commonwealth Edison Company (Public Service Company) and strict observance of the regulation against it is requested by George Biederman, district superintendent of the utility. He urges local residents to cooperate with the Company's safety program by keeping poles free from handbills and posters of any kind.

"Nails, tacks and other fasteners are a real danger to our linemen," Mr. Biederman said. "The metal objects may prevent a lineman's climbers from gripping properly and result in an accident. In addition, the posters are unsightly and taking them down is a costly maintenance problem."

Board Studies Drainage Plan For New Lenox

The New Lenox village board is now studying a plan to bring relief from surface waters in the Second and Pine street area.

A survey has been completed by Gaylord Mangun of a proposed tile line that would begin on Second ave., about 70 feet west of Pine st. It would run along Pine about 70 feet and then angle across a corner of the R. A. Flint property and then proceed north along the east line of the Eugene Carter property for approximately 175 feet and thence west.

Approximately 225 feet of the west line would carry tile, followed by 200 feet of open ditch and from there it would flow over rock to a tile line running north.

One hundred and seventy-five feet of the tile would be down five feet, 225 feet would be buried four feet. The open ditch would be two feet deep.

The village board had a special meeting last night to discuss the details of the plan. Some $3,000 has been earmarked for such a drainage line.

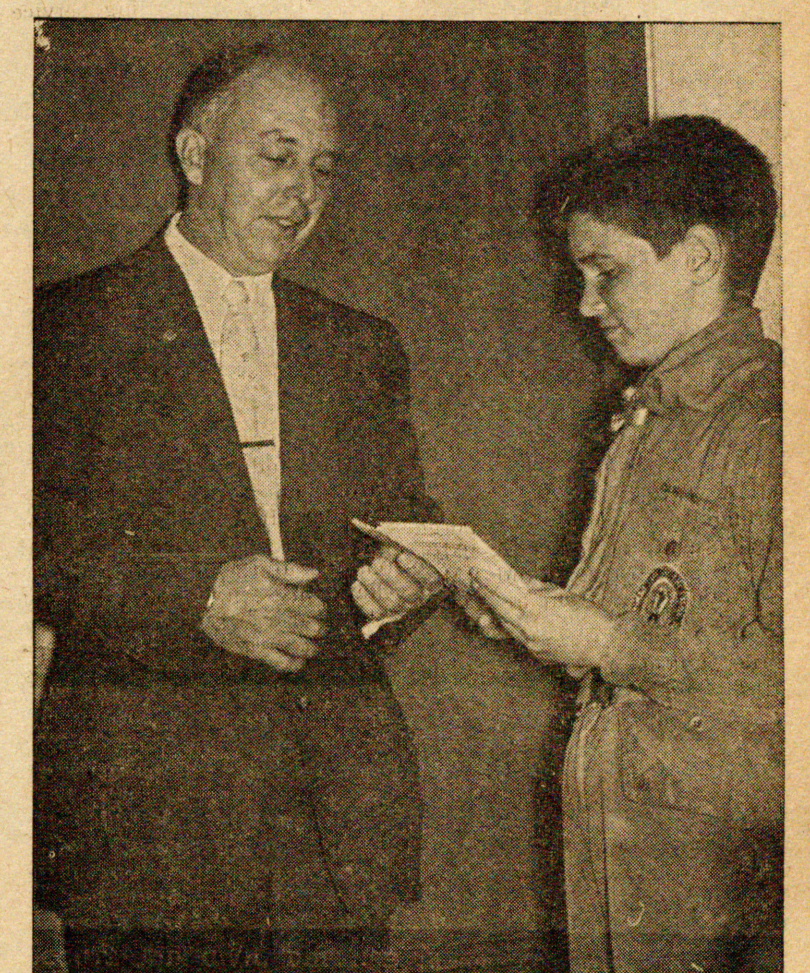

The board was expected to reach a decision last night and if it decides to go ahead with the project will ask for bids soon.

Ground Given To 4-H'ers in Memory Of Former Leader

At a recent meeting of the Will County Home Economics Extension council and Home bureau, Mrs. Norman Krapf, county 4-H chairman, reported that the 4-H leaders have accepted the ground so generously donated by Mrs. Fred Francis in memory of her husband, the late Fred Francis. Mr. Francis had worked with the 4-H groups for many years and was very interested in young people and their projects.

Recently members of the Will County 4-H Key club held a picnic at the home of Miss Joyce Sheer in Monee at which time they decided to become an organization to do things to help the 4-H on a county level. A Key club member is one who is or has been an outstanding 4-H'er of the state.

Home Adviser, Mrs. Betty Shinn reported that "Pennies for Friendship" will be stressed in October. man and Mrs. J. C. Knight is treasurer. Besides these two officers a vice chairman also serves.

Hold Democratic Rally Saturday In Markham Park

A Rayson for Congress jam-boree will be held in the Markham park, 163rd and Central park from 6 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 11.

According to Francis Maher, chairman, the affair will have all of the better aspects of a carnival and an old time political rally.

There will be free refreshments, dancing and attendance prizes contributed by merchants. Climaxing the festivities will be a huge bonfire.

A motorcade starting at 163rd and Kedzie ave. at 4 p.m. will precede the rally.

The featured political speaker will be Leland Rayson, of Tinley Park, Democratic candidate for Congress for the 4th Congressional district.

Other candidates who have been invited to attend are Sheriff Joseph Lohman, candidate for state treasurer; George Wilkens for Superintendent of Schools, Warden Frank Sain for Sheriff; Mrs. Clara Smollen and Frank Downey for state representatives; Mary Jane Youngholm, Antonio Herbert, Ray Cox, John White, and William Freeman for County Commissioners, also Harry Clarke, Bremen Township Democratic committeeman.

Tinley Business Firms Get Notices Licenses Are Due

No business in Tinley Park can operate without first obtaining a village license.

The license chairman, Joseph McCarthy, reported to trustees at Monday's meeting that letters have been sent to business houses in the village that licenses must be paid by Oct. 15. If not paid by that time, the matter will be turned over to the police department, the letter states.

McCarthy requested that the license committee meet Saturday morning to discuss classifications of licenses.

Bettenhausen Sales at Tinley Shows '59 Dodge

Bettenhausen Motor Sales, 17514 Oak Park ave., Tinley Park, Dodge dealers, is showing the new 1959 Dodge cars in their sales rooms this week.

Herbert Bettenhausen, owner, is thrilled over this new car, with swing out, swivel front seat, and the jet age refinements of the dart look that create a new and distinctive exterior design.

An instrument panel concentrated more closely around a new "easier to get by" steering wheel, plus push button control of virtually all driver operations, head the list of 1959 advancements inside the new cars.

New styling treatment of both front and rear, side and roof, and sharply defined, canted rear fins introduce a dramatically new concept of styling.

A striking exterior design is keynoted by arched headlight "eye brows" which curve inward and downward to the front grille. New tail lights—patterned after jet tubes—and new rear end "control surfaces" on the fins provide a fleet, futuristic image.

Friday, October 10 has been set as the tentative date for the new models to go on display in dealer showrooms across the country, according to M. C. Patterson, Dodge general manager.

Bettenhausen Motor Sales has three models of the 1959 series on display now.

Urges Cyclists To Use Caution

With the school year back in full swing, the Motor Club warns motorists to watch carefully for youngsters bicycling to and from their classes.

Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Motor Club's safety and traffic engineering department, points out that today some 25 million Americans, mostly children, own bicycles. He cautions motorists to be extra cautious as the daylight hours become shorter.

Sielski reminds bicyclists that the safe operation of a bicycle involves many of the same requirements as that of an automobile. He said cyclists should:

1. Signal for all turns and stops.
2. Obey all stop and go traffic signals.
3. Yield the right of way to pedestrians.
4. Ride alone—only one on a bike.
5. Keep both hands on the handlebars except when signaling.
6. Ride single file close to the right side of the street or roadway.
7. Keep your bike in good condition—with special attention to brakes and lights.
8. Keep well back of moving cars—they may stop suddenly.
9. Drive straight ahead—make no sudden change of course.
10. Avoid riding too fast down hill.

Carl Sandburg PTA Prepares for Smorgasbord to be Held Oct. 25

Members of the Carl Sandburg Parent Teacher association are busy with preliminary details necessary to staging their 8th annual smorgasbord which has become the gourmet treat of the year in the Palos area.

The event will be held in the school, 133rd and La-Grange road, (U.S. 45) Orland Park, on Saturday, Oct. 25.

In order to handle the flow of patrons more quickly, an additional serving time has been added this year. The color of tickets will denote the specified serving times, 4 p.m., 5 p.m., 6 p.m., 7 p.m. Tickets can be procured from the budget chairman, Mrs. Albert Swayne, 12209 South 93rd av. Palos Park, or any of the following regional chairmen:

Mrs. Frank Fiedorowicz, (North Palos) 9219 83rd ave., Oak Lawn; Mrs. Harry J. Richard (Orland Park) 14530 Raney's Lane, Orland Park; Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen (Orland Township) 108th ave., Tinley Park; Mrs. William Goldinger (Palos Heights) 12750 Harlem ave., Palos Heights; Mrs. Joseph Graninger (Palos Park) 12505 81st av. Palos Park; Mrs. Gus Johnson (Quin-Dorn) 10616 South 82nd, Palos Park; and Mrs. Raymond Walsh (Worth) 7300 West 113th street, Worth.

The Smorgasbord chairman, Mrs. Jay Smith, Palos Park and her cochairman, Mrs. E. A. Galapeaux, also of Palos Park, say that the tables will be groaning with at least 50 varieties of foods. In addition to the two smorgasbord tables set up to take care of the flow of patrons, two additional tables will be set up in the dining room for those wishing second helpings.

This year as in previous years, more than 200 persons will be on hand to help with the food preparation. The serving will be handled by some 50 girls, all students at Carl Sandburg, wearing the new traditional serving aprons of yellow and blue, the school colors.

The finest assortment of foods, prepared by the best cooks in the area using their own favorite recipes, has become a tradition of the Sandburg High School PTA smorgasbord. Preparing and serving huge quantities of food doesn't seem to phase these PTA members. For example, imagine the containers needed to accommodate 250 pounds of shrimp, 250 pounds of Swedish meatballs, 60 dozen deviled eggs, 55 pounds of Swedish potato sausage and a comparable quantity of pickled herring, not to mention at least 5,000 home baked cookies.

This tremendous effort is the only fund raising event of the year for the PTA and the proceeds provide two annual PTA scholarships as well as generous support of varied PTA activities.

Chemical Society Hold Symposium In Joliet Tonight

The first meeting of this season of the Joliet section of American Chemical society will be held this evening, Oct. 9, in the chemistry department of the College of St. Francis, 603 Taylor st., Joliet starting at 8 o'clock.

A symposium will be held on "The Chemistry of Removing Hardness and rust from water" and Ronald Colaric will speak on a practical scaling test.

Other speakers will be Henry Ferlin; Calvin Ishida and Eugene Kazmark, about water softness, manufacture and sales and industrial towel service.

A dinner will be held in the White Chimney, preceding the meeting at 6:30 p.m.

VFW Aux. Card Party Will Benefit Retarded Children

In order to aid the Will county parent's group for retarded children attending Trinity school, Gougar rd., the Auxiliary of the William Martin post, 725, VFW will sponsor a card and bunco party Saturday, Oct. 11. The affair will be held in the VFW hall on Wolf rd., Mokena, and will start at 8 p.m.

The admission will include refreshments which will be served by Mrs. Bertha Ziesemer, chairman.

Those in charge urge the public to attend and help this worthy cause.

uncontrolled growth brought in subdividers who build "$6,000 and $7,000 mansions" probably of the prefab type which often will not stand ordinary wear and tear of living more than a few years. They soon become slums with least desirable populations.

With a Land Use map on file with the county, under Illinois law, the village has control of the "use" make of the land and areas one and one-half miles from the village limits, but that without this Land Use map, it has no controls except thru influence with the county supervisors.

Mr. Muehlenbruch emphasized that the village has no control whatever over farming lands within these limits so long as it remains farming land. The controls are effective only when the farm land is used for other than farming.

In showing how such controls are a very real protection of values for the farmer, he showed slides of excellent potential residential areas, which lost considerable value for this purpose due to the sale by another farmer, of property being used as a slaughterhouse, junk yard area, or industries using waste paper, etc., few people would like to invest a large portion of their life savings in a home near such industries.

He stated that most desirable industries want to locate in "controlled" areas as they know they will be protected from misguided subdividers who would build residences across the road or in situations where the plant would face the possibility of public complaints and petitions that trucks, lights or noises, etc. are such that children are endangered or noises objectionable, etc. with constant harassment and endangering of their plant investment. He was most emphatic in pointing out that the word "industry" does not entail big smoke stacks and heavy smoke pall. It includes a long list of manufacturing and laboratory activities which bring with them the most desirable population growth and plants which can add attractive decoration to the landscape.

Mr. Muehlenbruch pointed out that educational costs are rising and that without industrial growth and resultant plant investment to take on part of the tax burden, few people can afford the luxury of living in purely residential subdivisions. He named a number of towns that had tried to grow without sharing the tax load with industry, but found out too late they could not do so and are now bankrupt with necessity of the county coming to their aid with even funds for the most essential facilities such as streets and roads. No industry will now enter that area due to the tax situation.

Mr. Lawrence Kohl, a member of the Mokena Plan commission and of the Lincoln-Way high school board, told of an uncontrolled situation in Cook county in the location of trailer camps. One group of these camps were sending children to the schools with a cost of nearly $400,000 and that total taxes gained from these camps was in the neighborhood of $397,000 being saddled on the other tax payers.

Mr. Muehlenbruch said that Mokena and Frankfort are fortunate in that they have good water table conditions, railroad facilities, electrical grid placement, and excellent interstate road connections as well as being only about an hour away from Chicago. The completion of the southern portion of the toll road, the new thru road to Moline, the Sag Canal and the Calumet Harbor, insured a happy economic picture for the area with proper controls.

He, however, pointed out that many amateur speculators will be a nuisance to development and most of them will not profit in their efforts to take excessive profits from developments. Their efforts may well penalize themselves by slowing development of their particular areas.

Mr. Muehlenbruch complimented Mayor Marti and the trustees on the care taken in selection of the Plan commission. He said his firm had been more thoroughly investi-

MOTHERS' CLUB of Sacred Heart girls' high school, Mokena, organized for the coming year Tuesday night (Oct. 8). At a meeting held in the school officers were chosen and plans discussed for the current term. The Mothers' club takes an active part in raising funds and otherwise giving support to the school. The officers elected Tuesday (left to right) are: (seated) Mrs. Ethel Marshall, president; Mrs. Billie McKee, vice president; (standing) Mrs. Helen Hattendorf, secretary; Mrs. Marie Bezdek, treasurer, and Mrs. Eleanor Cahill, corresponding secretary. Home Bureau Installs Officers At Annual Meeting on Sept. 30

Over 200 women attended the 20th annual meeting of Will County Home Bureau on Sept. 30, at the Frankfort Methodist church.

Mrs. Harold Scheer presided. The invocation was given by the church pastor, the Rev. Ben F. Day.

Singing was led by Mrs. Norman Krapf. The minutes of last year's meeting were read by Mrs. Wilbert Lauffer. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Peter Bruno. Mrs. Clair Hemphill, membership chairman, received the membership status during the past year and introduced her helpers, Mrs. Edward Berens, Mrs. Francis Rin, and Mrs. Minor Martin. Mrs. Norman Krapf, 4-H chairman, gave her report and introduced the 4-H leaders in the audience. She also reviewed the 1,626 projects enrolled the past year.

Mrs. Howard Kurkamp, program chairman, reviewed the six goals of the homemakers' program: 1. Your family security. 2. Planning satisfying meals for company and guests. 3. Colorwise planning. 4. Homemakers who are better consumers. 5. Satisfying family and community life. 6. Improving community life.

Other reports were given by Mrs. William Atchison, recreation chairman; Mrs. Harold DeMik, finance chairman, Mrs. Clyde Zimmer, radio chairman, Mrs. B. B. Hursch, county publicity chairman, Mrs. James McCure, health chairman, and Mrs. Karl Keniston, legislative chairman.

Mrs. Clifford Williams, a member of the League of Women Voters stressed the importance of being a registered voter and reviewed the items to be voted on in the November election. Mrs. Victor Bertnik spoke on the judicial amendment.

Mrs. Lloyd Leupold is craft chairman, Mrs. Emmett Hepler, safety chairman, and Miss Hazel Cowell, school chairman.

Short talks were given by Andy Wicklein, farm advisor, Alden Hickman, assistant and Harold Holz, president of the Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Earl Corey, Mrs. Harold Jones, and Mrs. H. D. Bowyer, all members of the state board of Illinois Home Bureau Federation, were introduced. Also Miss Lulu Black, head of the Home Economics Exhibited by the Mokena and Frankfort people than had ever been done by other comparable areas.

Mayor Marti advised the group that four members of the Mokena Plan commission were chosen from areas outside of Mokena, but contiguous to the village. This was in reply to a complaint of lack of representation on the Commission of the area outside the village.

tension staff at the University of Illinois, who spoke, briefly on future plans of the Home Bureau. A key remark was, "Education is not a destination, it is a journey".

Betty Shinn, County Home advisor, and Mary Cheze, assistant, gave short talks on their work in the county.

Nominating committee chairman, Mrs. Fred Francis, offered the following panel of officers for the coming year: Mrs. Clair Hemphill, president; Mrs. Edward Berens, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Jackson, secretary; Mrs. Ear Belford, treasurer; Mrs. Howard Kurkamp, program; Mrs. William Atchison, recreation; Mrs. C. A. Rehberg, financial; Mrs. Clyde Zimmer, radio; Mrs. Lloyd Leupold, craft; Mrs. Ben Hursch, publicity. They were installed by past president, Mrs. Alfred Krapf.

The theme of the afternoon program which was handled by Mrs. Howard Kurkamp, was "20 Years in Review". The Will County Home Bureau first president in 1938, Mrs. Wayne McCure, told of its early organization.

Mrs. Edith Hoffman was the first home advisor. She was in the county for eight years and is now home advisor in Stephenson County.

Other past presidents who gave brief highlights of activities during their terms of office were: Mrs. Harold Scheer, Miss Caroline Bentley, Mrs. Drew Castle, Mrs. Edward McDonald, Mrs. Earl Keniston, Mrs. Phil Goodwin, Mrs. Alfred Krapf, Mrs. Ray Walsh, Miss Marguerite Offerman, Mrs. George Bovee, Mrs. Harry Eaton and Mrs. Edward Berens.

Letters from former home advisors were read. Charter members of Home Bureau were also given special recognition.

A candlelight service concluded the business session. The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Laura Hughes Lundie of Chicago. Her subject was "Good Government is Fun."

L-W Players to Present First Play Oct. 17-18

Mrs. Lois Loebe, the director of the first play to be produced by the Lincoln-Way Community Players, is busy rehearsing the cast of Ghost Train the three-act play which will be shown at the Lincoln-Way High School auditorium Oct. 17 and 18.

The cast chosen by Mrs. Loebe includes Barbara Sprayberry as the independent matron with Stuart Morrison as her husband; the young bride Peggy will be played by Beverly Elliott with Paul Thomas as her husband Charles; Ronald Whitaker will take the part of Saul the station master; Lewis Loebe has the important part of Teddy; Mrs. Jay Bissel plays the interesting part of Miss Bourne; Jerry Saxon has the part of Price; Sterling is played by Glen Ruttenbek and Joanne Saxton plays the part of Julia the girl who sees the Ghost Train first.

The Lincoln-Way Community Players is a new theatrical group composed of members from the area connected with the Lincoln-Way high school. The plays of the group are sponsored by the Parent Teacher group of the high school with the proceeds to be used for the school.

The first play is an important one and the Parent Teacher group is selling tickets for the production. The players will leave the equipment for use by the high school and anything else they may buy for future plays will be left at the school.

Monday night, Oct. 6 the executive board met in the cafeteria to complete final details of the play which were presented at the meeting on Tuesday night, Oct. 7 by President Lewis Loebe.

"Ghost Train" is a gay, entertaining play which will give an evening of entertainment to everyone in the high school district as well as many from other towns. The cast and members of the committees working to produce this play are really enjoying the weeks of work in their efforts to amuse the audience with a well produced play and to help the high school.

Delegates to a Geneva conference on the peaceful uses of atomic energy believe that nuclear power as an economical and practical competitor to conventional power is at least a decade away. Speaker after speaker said research has shown that economical nuclear power is going to be more difficult to achieve than was originally supposed.

Sandburg Plows Knights Eagles Show Too Much Power and Speed for Lincoln-Way Grid Outfit

By RANDY JOHNSON
Carl Sandburg kept its homecoming record intact last week-end by overwhelming the Lincoln-Way varsity football team 25 to 0.

Coach Joe Devine's charges have yet to lose a homecoming game and for good measure the Sandburg frosh-sophs, coached by Henry Meier racked up a 31-12 win in the curtain raiser to remain undefeated.

The varsity victory snapped a three-game losing streak for the Eagles. The Sandburgs had too much power for their visitors. The Knights threatened at intervals but just couldn't cut it.

Eric Johanson scored the first touchdown for the Eagles after they had marched 44 yards and figured in the next as he flipped a pass to Charles Parks that was good for 50 yards and another six points. Jerry McBride kicked for the extra point and at the end of the first quarter the score was Sandburg 13, Lincoln-Way 0.

Neither team scored in the second period altho the Knights came close. They worked the ball to the Sandburg four but were then thrown back and three plays later the Knights lost possession on a fumble.

In the third frame the Sandburgs scored twice. Jim Voss caught a pass on the 30 and scampered over and the next touchdown came on a 31-yard dash along the sidelines by Parks.

There was no further scoring in the game but the crowd got a thrill in the final frame when a 61-yard run by Sandburg was ruled out.

The difference in the power was written in the statistics. Sandburg gained 204 yards by rushing to 60 for Lincoln-Way. The Eagles passing netted them 77 yards as compared to 17 for the Knights.

The Eagles will travel to Libertyville Saturday afternoon for that school's homecoming contest. Libertyville is undefeated in four appearances and while a win for the Eagles would not aid them in their conference standings it would be a big booster for their morale.

At the Sandburg homecoming dance Janice Henkle was crowned queen.

Sandburg made the homecoming completely victorious by also defeating Lincoln-Way in the cross country run between games. The Sandburg team, led by Reed Williams, who covered the course in 10:04, won 16 to 46.

More Sketches On Lincoln-Way Grid Players

By BILL SLUIS
Here are more Knights for you to meet.

Howie Mann is a 16-year-old junior. He's five feet, seven inches tall and weighs 150 pounds. Howie provides the speed of Lincoln-Way's backfield at right half and is the Knights' leading yard-gainer. His favorite play is the hand-off and he plans to go to college.

At center is 17-year-old Wayne Klasing, a bespectacled redhead who weighs 170 pounds. His favorite play is also the hand-off. Wayne, who gets good grades and is a member of the National Honor Society is planning on college.

Marvin Gray is a 16-year-old junior end. Of the two end positions he prefers right end and his favorite play is the quick pass. He's five feet, eleven and weighs 160. Marvin also plans to go to college.

Dave Donaldson is another backfield man. Usually at fullback. He also carries the ball a large part of the time. He's five feet eight, weighs 159, and says the delayed hand-off is his favorite play.

Eaglets Beat Lincoln-Way to Hold Loop Lead

By BILL SLUIS
The Lincoln-Way frosh-soph football team took a 32 to 12 licking in the curtain raiser of the homecoming grid program at Carl Sandburg high school last Saturday.

It left the Sandburg crew undefeated in Southwest Suburban conference play.

The hosts were hospitable enough but their hospitality had limits. They weren't yielding any more ground than they could help.

The Sandburg frosh-soph counted two touchdowns in the first quarter. The first came on a 64-yard run by Byron Hynk and Lynn Conradi added the extra point to make the score 7 to 0. The other touchdown was scored by Bud Swane after spearing a 20-yard pass. Try for the extra point failed.

In the second quarter the Lincolns scored on a 30-yard pass from Skip Kruzich to Jim Stanek. The Sandburgs retaliated by scoring again and when the half ended the Sandburgs were leading 19 to 6.

In the third quarter John Bush shook loose and went 95 yards for a touchdown. The crowd was scarcely settled down in their seats after that thriller when Wayne Lauffer of Lincoln-Way brought them up again with a 66-yard run that took him over the goal line. Try for the extra point failed and that was the extent of Lincoln-Way's scoring. The Eagles counted again in the fourth quarter when Hynk clicked with his third counter for the day. The final score was 32 to 12, Sandburg.

Bremen Takes Mustangs 20 to 7; Now Facing Crucial Tilt With Rich

In its first home game of the season, Bremen high school varsity griders defeated Evergreen Park 20 to 7 in a Southwest Suburban conference contest that was marked by good line play and some dazzling work by the backs.

Rich Nelson added to his reputation as a performer with two runs of 56 and 77 yards for touchdowns and Dennis Tattum, covering ground with his customary thoroughness, was the other big factor.

Nelson got loose in the first quarter to go 56 yards for a counter and Palmer added the point on a plunge. The Parks crew battled back in the second quarter when Ken Weber raced 39 yards for a touchdown and Jenner kicked for the extra point. That left the score at 7-0 but Nelson broke the tie with his 77-yard scamper. The attempt for the extra point failed and the score at haltime was Bremen 13, Evergreen Park 0.

After the intermission the Braves had the game under control. Nelson appeared to be on his way for another tally in the third frame but fumbled on the Evergreen 10 and the Mustangs recovered. In the closing minutes of the final quarter Tattum plunged over for the final score and Nelson converted.

Larry Callan's Braves look better all the time and tomorrow they will invade the Reavis balliwick. Rich played Reavis last Saturday, scoring another shutout, this time 25 to 0. This Saturday Rich plays Evergreen Park.

If Bremen and Rich win their games this week-end both will be undefeated in conference play when they meet at Bremen Oct. 17 and that should be quite a contest.

Carla Mrosek Is Honored at Birthday Party

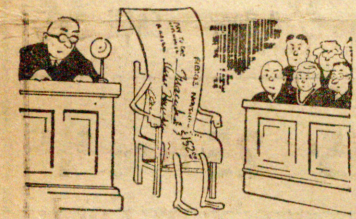

Miss Virginia Demboes, Worth, and Edward Mrosek Jr., Alpine, entertained at a surprise party in the Mrosek home, Saturday evening, Sept. 27, in honor of his sister, Carla Kae and her sixteenth birthday, Oct. 1.

Decorating of the house and assemblage of guests took place while Carla and her father were visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Mrosek, Chicago. On their return Carla was greeted by a shower of sugar lumps and Happy Birthday greetings from the assembled guests as she entered her darkened home which had been decorated with gay colored crepe paper streamers and balloons and from the middle of which hung a large artificial sugar lump with the words "Sweet Sixteen" written on all sides. Games were played until a light lunch complete with birthday cake was served after which guests danced to recorded music.

Carla received many lovely gifts among which was a beautiful memory piece made by Mrs. Stuart Culp of white crinoline, pink, white and yellow ribbon bows and streamers at the ends of which were tied sugar cubes. She wore a lovely corsage of pink carnations, the special gift of her father.

All had a good time—especially Carla.

"Gifts from the Kitchen," is the minor lesson and will be given by Mrs. Siegfried Beckman.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lorenzen entertained evening guests last Wednesday at their home in honor of the birthdays of their two sons, Dale Alan, who was one year old and Billy two years old. Their guests were Mrs. Mary Lorenzen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ebert and Mrs. Laura Hansen, all of Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Piper of Steger, Mrs. Martha Piper and Miss Shirley Piper of Peotone. Ice cream and birthday cake was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Brockman entertained their card club Saturday evening in their home. Honors were won by Mrs. Leslie Koenig and Henry Kuse. Later refreshments were served.

The Busy Homemakers Home Bureau unit met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Harry Palmer. Roll call was answered by 15 members with, "Your First Office Job." Mrs. Kenneth McCarty presided at the business meeting. The Home Advisor, Mrs. Betty Schinn gave the major lesson on the topic, "Blood, a Major Life-Saving Weapon." Luncheon was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be, "Units Choice Kraft" and will be held at the home of Mrs. Anna Scheer Nov. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sippl and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schmidt of Manhattan returned home last Friday after a trip around Lake Michigan. Enroute they stopped and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Feil at Muskegon, Mich.

The F. Men of Green Garden will have their first public card party of the season this Friday evening, Oct. 10, at the Town Hall beginning at 8 p.m. Please bring either cake or sandwiches. A card party will be given once each month during the winter months and will be the 2nd Friday evening, same time and same place.

Invite Wives To Dinner Meeting Of Toastmasters

The Tinley Park Toastmasters will hold a dinner meeting on Monday, Oct. 13, at the 42-A restaurant, 17658 Oak Park ave., to which their wives have been invited.

The toastmaster will be Harold Brown. Tom Racine will be topic master.

According to president, Carter LeBeau, the meeting promises to be interesting and informative. Reservations should be made with Ronald Hosking at Kellogg 2-2719.

The Toastmasters meet the second and fourth Monday of each month in the Central school.

Letters to the Editor

SAYS UPGRADING NEEDED

The Editor:
I am pleased to hear that the aim of the Tinley Park board is to upgrade Tinley. Property owners should do likewise. Here's hoping something will be done about those miserable looking shacks on 174th street just across from Sanger hall. These dilapidated unpainted structures reduce that section of 174th street to a slum and alley.

This area is just a stone's throw from the railroad station and only a few yards from Vogts, Sanger Hall and the Church of Christ. You would hardly expect such conditions to be permitted in such a centrally located section.

It embarrasses me to drive out of town friends or relatives past these old barns that look as if they were about to collapse. And the last thing I'd do is rent Sanger hall and have friends park along such shabby structures.

And while we are in the same block let us take a good look at the grounds behind Sanger Hall. Whoever owns this property should be required to clear the grounds of junk, dead branches and brush. The rusty old fencing which is broken down should be discarded. It serves no purpose. This whole area could be almost park like if kept clean and mowed.

I could go into what a terrible hazard those broken up sidewalks are in this very same area but I'll just be accused of being a crank so I'll stop now, but if there's any upgrading to be done, let's open our eyes and start on 174th st.

A Concerned Citizen

Cards of Thanks

My heartfelt thanks to relatives, friends and neighbors who expressed their condolence at the time of passing of my beloved mother.

MRS. CHRIS. M. KRUSPE
New Lenox

My sincere thanks for the visits, lovely cards, flowers and gifts sent to me while I was a patient in the Evangelical hospital, and also since my return home. This thoughtfulness helped much in shortening the long hours which I will always remember.

MRS. EDWARD JUERGENSEN,
Tinley Park

My heartfelt thanks and grateful appreciation for the kindness and sympathy extended to me during the trying days following my husband's sudden demise. Words cannot express my feelings adequately but I want you all to know that I shall never forget.

IVA CESARZ

We wish to thank all who made our 25th wedding anniversary one we will long remember.

Thank you very much.

Nazarenes Join In Anniversary Sunday Service

The Tinley Park and Orland Park Churches of the Nazarene will join Nazarenes around the world in simultaneous golden anniversary worship services Sunday morning, Oct. 12.

The Rev. Dallas D. Mucci, pastor of the Tinley church, will bring the anniversary sermon. At the 10:50 a.m. worship service, a combination of age, middle age, and youth will be used to illustrate the various stages of the growth and future outreach. The sermon will conclude the series began on Sunday, Sept. 28, "Sense of the Reformation" by Rev. Mucci. The sermon is: "Do the Nazarenes fit in the pattern of the reform church?"

The Tinley Nazarene church opened in 1952. Last March a new church building was dedicated.

From a starting of about 25, the church has grown to a total attendance of about 120 over the past six years, the greatest gains in the last two years.

The Rev. J. C. Reedy, pastor of the Orland Park church will bring the anniversary sermon. This church was begun in 1951 when meetings were held in a vacant store. In 1954 property was purchased at 143rd and Ravinia where their building now is erected.

Tinley Teen Club Elects New Officers

New officers were elected at the Oct. 2 meeting of the Tinley Teen club. They are Thomas Blount, president; Jean Bergeron, secretary; Jackie Boyle, vice president; Leona Bergeron, treasurer.

This year the teens used a political method of running for office. Candidates were required to file petitions having 15 signatures; five of them had to be local merchants.

The Teen club also has a board of trustees, composed of Harold Moore, police chief; Peter Seeley, juvenile officer; Joseph McCarthy, Teen club director; Mrs. Ida DeVault, Harold Coley Jr., Ray J. Sullivan, past commander VFW, and Frank Jeffords.

The installation ceremonies will be held Nov. 6. It is expected that the state commander of the VFW will swear in the new officers.

On Saturday, the teens will enjoy a hayride party. Activities of the club include bowling, dancing, rifle club and a drill team.

The club is open to any high school students. There are also 113 honorary members. Meetings are held each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the VFW club rooms, 172nd and Oak Park ave. Prospective members must

Mrs. Paul M. Ehrlich

Paul Ehrlich of New Lenox and Bride Making Home in Milwaukee

An 11 a.m. nuptial mass at Our Lady of the Angels church in Chicago, united Paul Michael Ehrlich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Ehrlich of New Lenox, and Esther Marie Pantalso, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Pantalso of Chicago, on Aug. 18.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father McDonnell.

White ribbon with white gladioli adorned the pews and bouquets of white gladioli and mums decorated the altar.

Martin Abbinanti, soloist, sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother at Your Feet I Am Kneeling".

The bride, escorted by her father, was radiant in a pure silk French imported taffeta gown, princess line with a scooped neck, outlined with reemboirered lace.

The long sleeves formed points over the hand. The full flowing skirt held appliques of reemboirered lace and flowed into a chapel train. She wore a princess crown of pearls and carried a bouquet of five white orchids.

Mrs. Leonard V. Pantalso, sister-in-law of the bride, was maid of honor. Her silk organza gown was of pale pink and had a new harem drape skirt. She wore a picture hat of pleated tulle and carried a bouquet of four orchids.

Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid Plan Roast Beef Dinner for Oct. 15

Final plans for the roast beef dinner to be given by the Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid of Tinley Park, were announced at the Oct. 1 meeting. It will be held from 5 to 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 15, in the parish hall. Mrs. Bernard Ercius is ticket chairman. Fancy work will be on sale at this time.

The theme of the meeting was the annual birthday party and a film was shown, "The Reason for Being". The program committee also led the group in several games. Mrs. Victor Pokorny presided. In attendance were 41 members and one guest, Mrs. Thomas Grote.

The sewing group was scheduled to meet in the home of Mrs. Melvin Rensink yesterday. The rag rug group will meet Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. William Marquardt.

Mrs. Fred VanAntwerp and Mrs. Cecil Taylor attended a luncheon at the Lutheran Home Finding Society in Chicago and reported a need for new clothing for the children of this agency. As a result, plans are being made to contribute to this cause by holding a new clothing shower at the next meeting.

A bake sale will be held at Vogt's store Friday, Oct. 24, at 2 p.m., with Mrs. George Wannamacher and Mrs. Rensink in charge.

Refreshments were served by the following: Mrs. Herbert Keuch, Mrs. Carl Rauch, Mrs. Fred Manzke, Mrs. Victor Propp, Mrs. Walter Bruening,

The six bridesmaids, Mary Louise Pantalso, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid; Angela Fiorino, Kathleen Healy, Maureen Campbell, Nancy Ehrlich, and Trudie Ehler, wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of three orchids.

The groom's attendants were Max Ehrlich Jr., brother of the groom, best man; Leonard Pantalso, brother of the bride, Edward Wondrasek, Joseph Pappalardo, Fred Mooney, and Edward Ehler, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a sky blue silk shantung gown with reemboirered lace at the neckline and lace jacket. The groom's mother was dressed in Dior blue brocade silk.

Attending her granddaughter's wedding, was Mrs. Maria Intravartolo.

A reception for 250 guests was held at the Shoreland hotel. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth with a white satin flounce. Pink roses and candelabras decorated the table.

The couple spent a short vacation in Wisconsin and are making their home in Milwaukee.

The bride, who was a third grade teacher in Evanston, is now teaching second grade in Milwaukee.

Home Bureau Members to See Ice Follies

The October Home Bureau meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Ray Westlund of Mokena on Thursday, Oct. 2. Nine members were present. Miss Geri Smego joined the group as an associate member.

The group is planning to charter a bus to attend the Ice Follies at the Chicago Stadium on Nov. 2, followed by dinner downtown.

Mrs. Westlund presented the major lesson on "Party Plans and Programs for Family and Neighborhood Groups".

Mr. and Mrs. Westlund will entertain the monthly family night party with a Halloween party on Friday, Oct. 24. Guests will come in costumes.

Mrs. George Elsner of Frankfort will open her home to an all-day craft day on Wednesday, Nov. 5. Each member is to bring a sack lunch and material for the craft they wish to demonstrate.

Mrs. Howard Mager and Mrs. Lena Schantz.

Election of officers will be held at the next meeting on Nov. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray

Couple Observes Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, A Tinley Park couple, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, will mark their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Oct. 12, by holding open house in their home at 16733 Harlem ave., from 2 to 8 p.m. All friends are invited to attend. The couple was married Oct. 8, 1908 in Independence, Iowa. A farmer most of his life, Mr. Gray is now engaged in the construction business with his two sons, Lawrence and Colin.

They also have one daughter, Mrs. Marshall Lenzie, ten grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

A family dinner to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary was held last Sunday at Arch Inn.

Ahnell-Heidenrich

Couple Wed at Church Ceremony

The Good Shepherd Lutheran church of Palos Park was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday, Sept. 27 when Charlotte Ruth Ahnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ahnell of 7700 143rd st., Orland, and Edward William Heidenrich Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward William Heidenrich Sr., of Chicago, were united in marriage at a candlelight, double ring ceremony at 7 p.m., with the Rev. Harry Huxhold, officiating.

The altar was arranged with candelabras and bouquets of white gladioli and large mums. Music for the wedding ceremony was played by Mrs. Milton Swanson of Blue Island. Mrs. James Mittigan of LaGrange sang "Wedding Day" and "O, Perfect Love".

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white chantilly lace floor length gown entrain, with a sweetheart neck. Her finger tip veil of French illusion net, made by her aunt, was held in place by a tiara of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, white roses and ivy foliage. Her necklace of cultured pearls was a gift from her Godmother, Mrs. Edward Widule of California. The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold wristwatch. Nancy, sister of the groom, as flower girl, carried a basket of yellow roses. She wore a peach taffeta dress.

Alexandria Townsend of Blue Island, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Beverly Nelson of Blue Island and Mrs. Wayne Fredette of Tinley Park were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of Copenhagen blue taffeta, ballerina length with matching head pieces of velvet. Their bouquets were pink roses with ivy foliage, except the maid of honor whose bouquet was red roses with ivy foliage.

Serving the groom as best man, was Ronald Nienow of Chicago. Warren, brother of the bride, and James Fischer of Chicago, served as ushers. They wore tuxedos and white mum boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a sapphire blue silk dress and matching velvet hat. The groom's mother wore a grey blue embroidered satin dress and light feather hat.

"World of Ideas" to be Viewed By Orland Junior Woman's Club

MacKenzie's Restaurant, 143rd and Union, will be the meeting place for the first fall meeting of the Orland Park Junior Woman's club which will begin at 8 p.m., Oct. 13.

Report on the Nursery school held in July will be given by Mrs. Kenneth Bressler. Mrs. William Grosskopf report on the September Fashion Show, and asks that any money still due be turned in at this meeting.

Tricks-or-Treat candy will be distributed to all members by Mrs. Donald Craemer, Philanthropy chairman. These delicious candies are sold to benefit Brain Research, and of the $1 price, a full 50 percent goes directly for research and the remainder for the cost of candy and its distribution. This is a wonderful opportunity for everyone to contribute to a worthy cause and at the same time be prepared for the little goblins at Halloween.

Mrs. Henry Rafacz, membership chairman, will present new members to the club and will review the lovely tea held Sept. 28 at the home of Mrs. Merrill Cooper.

The program chairman for October, Mrs. James Plakovic, is pleased to present a very unique interior decorating program entitled "World of Ideas". Colorful slides will show how fabric design is created, as well as pictures of the countries visited around the world to obtain these most unusual designs. While maintaining an international flavor, room settings to be shown have been designed for adaptation in American homes.

Mrs. Oscar Enk, president of the juniors, especially wishes to invite newcomers to attend this first fall meeting to become better acquainted with the various philanthropic ac-

Harvey Moose Lodge Elects Jr. Governor

To fill the vacancy created in mid-term recently, Ed Scully was elected Jr. Governor of the Loyal Order Of Moose, Harvey Lodge 1203. Scully resides with his wife and two children in Homewood. He is well liked in Moose circles and many times over, has proved his worth to the Fraternity. In taking over as Jr. Governor he is leaving the entertainment committee where he has done an excellent job as its chairman. His amiable character is very fitting for one of the larger duties of his new position, that of visiting with the sick and convalescing members of the Lodge.

Harvey Moose Teen-Age club held installation of officers last week in the New Harvey Moose home on Dixie highway. The installing officer was Governor Gust P. Miller. The installing guide was Harvey chapter's Senior Regent Leone McLaughlin and she was assisted by the College Of Regents, Ruth Plake was installing chairman.

The regular Saturday night dance for Oct. 11 will be in honor of the Legionnaires of Harvey Moose, those who are in the 2nd degree of the Fraternity.

STUDY UN
Jim Gast and Margie Ardaugh of Manhattan, Norway Foster of Frankfurt, and Ella Jensen, exchange student from Denmark will represent Lincoln-Way at the "South Suburban United Nations," a model United Nations general assembly, to be held at Rich and Bloom township high schools this month and next.

South suburban business, civic and school groups will constitute the body of the assembly by forming delegations representing all member countries of the United Nations. The delegations by studying the problems and current issues of their adopted countries will represent them in this "general assembly" and its various committee meetings.

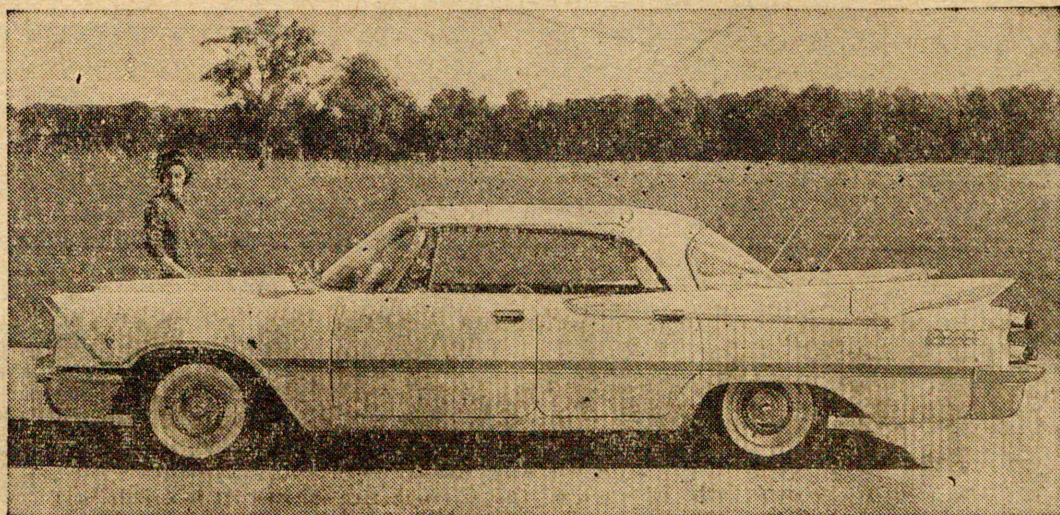

The first "general assembly" session will be held at Bloom Township high school, Sunday, Oct. 19, 2 to 5 p.m. Subsequent committee meetings will be held at either Rich or Bloom high school on Oct. 26, Nov. 9, and Nov. 23. The final "general assembly" session will be held at Rich high on Sunday, Dec. 7, 2 to 5 p.m.

Every delegation, consisting of five people and having equal vote in "general assembly" sessions, will discuss several provocative issues and resolutions, first in committee groups and finally in the assembly.

Current international problems and issues dealing with ownership of the moon, United Nations emergency forces, Chinese representation in the UN, and the problem of "indirect aggression," will be discussed by delegations representing the countries involved. Earle F. Opie, president of the Weber Costello Co., will serve as president of the "South Suburban United Nations."

ORIENTAL DANCER AT L-W
The students of Lincoln-Way were entertained Oct. 1 by Miss Lita Namoura who presented a program entitled "Dances of the Exotic East" featuring dances from India, Burma, and Spain. She was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Philipps who played several selections by Liszt and Gershwin during Miss Namoura's costume changes.

Miss Namoura is of Lebanese heritage which gives her a deep insight into the understanding of the meaning behind her dances. She has performed on television, in Carnegie hall, and on many other stages including hundreds of high schools. Her most distinguishing characteristics are her long, slim, expressive hands, graceful arms, and black eyes.

RHYTHM KNIGHTS

The ceremony for the thrilling event of the crowning of our homecoming queen will be conducted by the Rhythm Knights of Lincoln-Way. This ceremony will be presented twice; at an assembly Friday morning and at the dance Friday evening.

The Rhythm Knights squad is a group of girls doing precision drill work at the football and basketball games. Each spring tryouts are held and girls are judged on their musical and marching ability. Co-sponsors of the organization are Misses Barbara Sprayberry and Margaret Gentry.

Thirty-six girls make up the 1958-59 squad with Kathy Berlin and Mary Ann Snider co-captains. Other members are Paulette Anderson, Margie Ardaugh, Susan Bloomquist, Patricia Bradley, Jean Collins, Patty Dath, Barbara Daughermore, Stella Daugherty, Patty Davies, Jeanette Deist, Mary Jane Donaldson, Vivienne Eisenbrandt, Norvene Foster, Kaye Gersich, Karen Geuther, Helen Graham, Sharon Krapf, Jean Lientz, Judy Marcec, Linda Matasovic, Jan Miller, Cindy Morrison, Paula Muehler, Geri Munch, Joyce Schofield, Jonnelle Roberson, Shirley Schroeder, Janet Schwab, Ann Sims, Patty Vaughn, Rachael Weldon, Judy Wiegell, Teddy Zemeske, Kathy Zum-Mallen.

F. B. L. CONVENTION

The Future Business Leaders of America Chapter at Lincoln-Way high school are planning for the northern area convention to be held Nov. 1 at Northern Illinois University. Vivienne Eisenbrandt of Lincoln-Way is vice-president of the northern area and in charge of the convention.

Patricia Stevens of the famed modeling school, a telephone demonstration, and tours of the Wurlitzer Co. and General Electric Co. plant are only a few of the highlights of the agenda.

Assisting Miss Eisenbrandt with the convention will be the officers of the L-W chapter: Ann Hobbs, vice-president; Eleanor Zimmerman, secretary; Paula Muehler, treasurer.

PARENTAL CONFERENCES

Plans are underway to hold "freshman parental conferences" at Lincoln-Way Oct. 21 and 22 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. At this time parents of freshman students at Lincoln-Way are invited to discuss test scores, progress of the students, and four-year planned programs.

ART DEPARTMENT

Lincoln-Way's art department under the direction of Kenneth Kinney offers arts and crafts courses for all students. At present the curriculum includes Art I and II, and practical arts, an exploratory course for all freshmen. Next year the curriculum will include an Art III course for advanced students.

Art I has as its objectives the development of good judgment and discrimination in the selection of colors and materials, genuine talent for use as a vocation, and a desire to continue art as an avocation for less talented students.

Art II has the same objectives with emphasis placed on the students' interests and abilities. These objectives are carried out in design, drawing, sketching, printing, graphic arts, (linoleum printing, silk screen, and air brush), and crafts (internal carving of plastics, copper enameling, leather tooling and carving).

Pen and Brush, a club for those interested in art, provides additional art experiences for students. Newly elected officers for this club include Ella Jensen, president; Elaine Hermann, vice-president; Kathy Berlin, secretary; Bill Klinger, treasurer. One of the club's major projects is the creation of posters used to publicize school events.

FUTURE FARMERS

The Lincoln-Way chapter of the F.F.A. sent five of the officers to a Section 10 officers leadership training school at Mokena high school Sept. 25. The boys who attended were Ron Bulian, president; Don Alexander, for Bryan Smith, vice president; Wilbur Weber, for Kenneth Zitter's place as secretary; Mike Werner, treasurer; and Glenn Patterson, reporter. The sponsor and agriculture teacher at Lincoln-Way, Robert Van Rheeden, also attended.

The boys went to different training groups according to the office they were holding or representing and at 6 o'clock attended the annual banquet at which Minott Siliman, district director of soil conservation, was the main speaker.

Yesterday, Oct. 8, the entire F.F.A. chapter went to the Chicago Dairy Show.

HOMECOMING TOMORROW

Lincoln-Way will hold its third annual homecoming tomorrow, Oct. 10. Festivities will begin tonight, with a bonfire sponsored by the cheerleaders at which time the candidates for queen and her court will be introduced.

A pep assembly will be held Friday morning in the gymnasium where the queen and her court will highlight the program. The senior girl who is named queen will be crowned by the Rhythm Knights and she will then reign for the rest of the day and the dance that evening.

Preceding the game with Oak Lawn will be the performance of the Lincoln-Way Band and Rhythm Knights. During the half, the grade school bands from Frankfort, Manhattan, Mokena, and New Lenox will join the high school band and Rhythm Knights in a half-time ceremony.

The Homecoming dance, which will be held from 8:30 to 11:30, will climax the activities. Tickets may be purchased from members of the sophomore class. Alumni may purchase their tickets at the door.

Break Ground for Little City For Mentally Retarded Oct. 12

Ground will be broken Sunday, Oct. 12 in Palatine, for the Little City non-sectarian community for mentally retarded children, it was announced today by Ben Sears, president of the organization.

Civic officials from Chicago and numerous other suburban areas are expected to attend the 2:30 p.m. ceremony, which marks a great step forward in the fight against mental retardation.

When eventually completed the unique development will encompass a 60 acre tract of land at Algonquin and Roselle Roads and provide the newest of facilities and professional therapy for 500 mentally retarded children of all racial and religious denominations.

For some, Little City will mean rehabilitation to society; for others, it will be home for the rest of their lives.

But for those who stay, Little City will offer a protective, yet well organized life, based on the recognition that the mentally retarded are individuals who require a great deal of patience and understanding.

A total of thirty homes are to be built, each to accommodate a house parent and from 15 to 20 children. Also planned are three school buildings, an administration building, with an infirmary and living quarters for special personnel, a research center, a church playground and recreation hall.

Orchards and gardens will be developed on the community land and some farm animals will be provided for the children's interests.

As a general rule, children will be housed according to age and the extent of their handicap. In this way each person will have the opportunity to learn at his own rate and still participate on a relative level of equality.

According to Mr. Sears, of Park Ridge, the community will be constructed at an estimated cost of $1,855,000.

Mrs. Delilah White, honorary president of Little City, indicates that refinements in techniques of education, recreation and physical training already begun in other schools will be undertaken. "But most importantly," she added, "new techniques, plus thorough research into the causes, possible alleviation and prevention of retardation will be the major goal."

Seven organizations affiliated with the project will bear a large part of the responsibility for obtaining financial aid. They are: The Society for the Advancement of Retarded Children, The Zohar Foundation, Open Hearts for Retarded Children, The Rose Protus Social Service Club, The Al Abrams Memorial Foundation, The Louis Chip London Foundation and Timber Ridge Patrons for Little City. An individual memorial foundation has been set up by Isidor Doer, a Chicago manufacturer, in honor of his late son Robert.

In addition to Mrs. White, chief psychologist of the Dr. Julian D. Levinson Research Foundation, other members of the professional planning committee are:

John Bigler, M. D., chief of staff of Children's Memorial Hospital, Chicago, and Benjamin Gasul, M. D., director of pediatric cardiology at Cook County Children's Hospital and the Hektoen Institute for Medical Research, Chicago.

Also on the committee are: Hans Meyer, M.D., clinical director of the Fort Wayne, Ind. State school; Paul Moore, Ph. D., director of the Northwestern University voice clinic and research laboratory, Chicago; and Frederic A. Gibbs, M. D., professor of neurology and director of the division of electroencephalography, U. of Ill., Chicago.

The other on the committee are: P. J. Sparer, M. D., professor of psychiatry and preventive medicine, U. of Tennessee Medical school; Jo-

Home Owners to Petition That Road Commission Open Ditches

By DOROTHY GOBLE
Kellogg 2-3696

Although Carl Bormet, Town ship road commissioner, has arranged for deepening ditches in the area, his district or boundaries does not include the ditches along 171st st. These fall under the jurisdiction of the Cook County Road Commission.

Home owners will be asked to sign petitions requesting that the Cook County Road Commission open the ditches along 171st st. for better drainage.

Mrs. John Nalepka, ways and means chairman of Kirby School PTA held a cap sale in the school on the past two Thursdays. The caps are made of blue and gold felt (school colors) with the name KIRBY stamped on them. They sold for 35 cents. The sale was quite successful.

Room representatives and the ways and means chairman served a Humdinger luncheon to the school children on the first Wednesday of October. The class rooms were served individually and the luncheon went off quickly and successfully. Humdinger luncheons will be served the first Wednesday of each month.

The last meeting of the Southlands Property Owners Assoc. may be one of the most important business meetings ever held. Keep alert to changes that may come about in the near future.

Ivan Snyder, Association secretary, reported on a recent investigation made into the development and service area of the Tinley Park Volunteer Fire department. His report was given for the benefit of the new residents of the South lands and is as follows:

The Tinley Park Fire department is a voluntary, non-political self sustaining organization. It operates on voluntary donations and contributions in one form or another. It was formed with large donations sent in from all over the area. The contributing areas they serve are: West to Route 45, north as far as 143rd st., south to Vollmer road and east to Cicero ave.

This is their general area. The Southlands have the same fire ratings, as far as insurance is concerned as Tinley Park. If there is a fire hydrant near your home.

With the addition of two students in Kirby school, the enrollment stands at 110.

The dance held at Sanger ballroom last Saturday night by the Kirby School Mothers club was a very enjoyable evening. Three prizes were awarded, the first a home made quilt, won by Mrs. Judy Howell. Second prize of a clock was won by Mrs. Barbara McVay and the third prize, a cake decorator set, was won by Mrs. Pat Bettenhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Whitcomb have moved into a new home in Arlington Heights.

The program will consist of a variety of activities, entitled, "My Land, Masters and Me" and will be directed by Mrs. William Davidson. Pupils of her 5th and 6th grade will participate.

Everyone is invited to attend, especially parents and friends of the 5th and 6th grade pupils.

Kirby McIntosh

The next meeting of the Kirby McIntosh Parent Teacher association will be held 173rd and Ozark, at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 14 at the school.

Mrs. John Moskal, safety chairman, has invited Phillip Dykstra of Tinley Park, who is an authority on home safety, to talk and show a film on the subject.

Safety posters made by the students will be on display and will be judged at this program.

A penny auction will be held during the social hour.

A membership drive is being held and members will call on residents in a door to door campaign.

Petty Thief Flouts Court; Gets 2 Years

(CNS)—A two-year sentence for a $1 theft was imposed by U.S. District Judge Walter J. LaBuy Thursday on Walter M. Rickards, 37, of 13618 Wentworth, a former letter carrier at the Riverdale station.

He was indicted December 26, 1957 for having embezzled two letters December 3; one containing $1 to the TB Institute of Chicago and the other a greeting card addressed to Master Gregg Gentzle, 14315 S. Atlantic, Riverdale.

Thru a probation investigation he gave misleading information and on March 6 when the case was to be disposed of he disappeared and a bench warrant was issued. He was arrested Aug. 26 at Munice, Ind. by the FBI, after leaving a job as cook with the Canadian army from which he would not have been extradited according to Assistant U.S. Attorney Bernard J. Waters. Waters said it was apparently the trouble caused the court rather than the amount of the theft that drew the heavy sentence.

Another speaker was Police Chief Harold C. Moore, whose topic was "Protection of Youth." Mrs. Gladys E. Specht Superintendent of the Illinois Department of Labor, spoke on the "Employment of Youth."

Suggestions made at the previous PTA meeting were answered by board members.

Walter Fierke, superintendent of Tinley schools, discussed the question of facilities for the handicapped children.

Mrs. Kenneth Schmudde presided. The invocation was given by the Rev. Richard Kirkland of the Church of Christ.

Reports were made by Mrs. Robert Lillie, treasurer; Mrs. Allen Howie, membership; Mrs. Irwin Johnson, ways and means; and Walter Fierke, legislation.

Rooms 100, 111 and 302 were winners in the room count for the largest number of parents present.

Instructions on the voting machine were given by Mrs. Robert MacKenzie, who also encouraged eligible voters to register. She also invited interested women to attend the

Community Booster

Harry W. Trevvarthen's resignation as executive secretary of the Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce is sincerely regretted by the board of directors and all other persons interested in the development of the community.

Mr. Trevvarthen had filled the post of executive secretary for the past two and a half years and has done an excellent job as such. It is too bad that the finances of the Chamber do not permit his retention and the continuance of the Chamber of Commerce headquarters established on Oak Park avenue some 20 months ago.

Altho Mr. Trevvarthen was on salary, the Chamber of Commerce and the community probably got as much of it as he did as he was always digging into his own pocket to help finance various promotions and projects sponsored by the organization.

An example of this are the two signs advertising Tinley Park at the north and south limits of the village on Oak Park ave. They were designed by Mr. Trevvarthen, built under his supervision and when all the bills were cleared away a sizable piece of Trevvarthen's money had gone into the undertaking.

As a matter of fact there were few projects or programs to which he did not contribute financially.

Mr. Trevvarthen is sincerely interested in the development of Tinley Park and the fact that the community is not able to afford permanent quarters for the Chamber of Commerce and a paid secretary will not deter his efforts to build for a bigger and better town.

He makes it clear in his letter of resignation that he intends to continue with the job of boosting Tinley to the best of his ability and for the record he has displayed considerable ability in this regard.

The death of Peter H. McCarthy at Joliet last week has saddened many men and women, just as his life and work had gladdened so many.

No one can say how many persons Pete has helped, spiritually as well as materially in his lifetime which has stretched out to 91 years, but the number is legion and his passing is a real loss.

We have been accustomed to linking importance with success in business, in politics, in governmental affairs, the entertainment field and the world of sports and the monetary rewards derived therein, so any celebrity is accorded the magic letters, V.I.P., which serve as a key to take over a church.

As the weeks passed Pete grew fond of this neighbor. He had never attended church, had never been a member of one, and thought it a waste of time but one Sunday found him in a seat in the one where Rev. Mr. Carswell's stood in the pulpit.

Pete came back several Sundays and his conversion followed. He became active in church work and was chosen head of a young people's group that among other activities held services in the jail.

And it was not long before he felt called upon to start a mission to work among the friendless, people whose dress—or lack of it—and speech would have made them an alien group in any conventional church setting. He sold his house and other property that he owned, rented the building that was to be the home of the Morning Star mission for the remaining 49 years of his life, and began his service to man.

There were times in the early years of the mission when it looked as if it would have to close but Pete's faith never wavered. He prayed for help and help came. In time a group of Joliet business and professional men formed a board of trustees for the mission and sought donations. Many individuals and organizations, including various church groups, have since provided funds for the mission and for the past several years it has been one of the agencies to benefit from the Joliet-Will County Community Chest. Despite all this the mission has never been long on funds.

In all the 49 years that Pete has operated the Morning Star he has never taken up a collection; never charged for a meal or lodgings or the clothing he had given out.

He has given help to families, both local and transient; he has rented hotel rooms to house women and children and has purchased railroad and bus tickets for hundreds of persons stranded in Joliet that they might reach home or friends.

He not only gave all of his services without recompense in money but he also never used them in trade for conversion.

No, Pete, never bartered for a soul.

One time after a service a young man stood up and said he didn't believe "in that stuff," he didn't believe in God, he didn't believe in the Bible, he didn't believe in anything.

Pete looked at the man's thin face.

"Well," he said, "do you believe in eating?"

The youth nodded a yes.

"Do you believe in sleeping?"

Again a nod of affirmation.

"Then come on," Pete said, "and get a good meal and then you can go to bed."

But there was no conversation.

"Maybe," said Pete later, "there will be a time when God will speak to him and he will be better able to understand Him."

Pete's creed? Let me use his words:

"The breast is the temple; the earth the altar; the heart the sacrifice and you the priest. And you will have to settle your plan of salvation between here and the cemetery."

God rest you, Pete McCarthy.

50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY was a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Andres of Tinley Park, when more than 200 friends and relatives attended an Open House reception given for the couple in the parlors of the Methodist church. Lifetime residents of the area, the couple was thrilled by letters of congratulations received from President Dwight

Eisenhower and Governor William Stratton on the memorable occasion, among the many congratulatory messages from friends. The Open House was arranged by their daughter Ruth, who with her husband, Percy Jochum, and two daughters, Sharon and Loreley, received guests. (Robert Porter Photo)

Mrs. Marie Becker's Hydrangea Wins Over 2500 Entries in Show

Mrs. Marie Becker of 173rd and Ridgeland are retired employees of the Federal Reserve Bank, entered several of her choice specimens in a recent flower show, sponsored by the bank. Of the 2500 entries, Mrs. Becker's special hydrangea won the Grand Prize ribbon cluster. This very unusual plant has four flowers, each a distinct different color.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zobac and family were guests of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams in Lemont Sunday. Eight ladies were luncheon guests Friday of Mrs. Joe Andres. Dinner guests on Wednesday evening at the Andres home were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mosier.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Douglas of 183rd and Harlem ave. entertained as supper guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kruszcynski, also of 183rd street.

The Mocher's birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Betty Kunzer on 170th street recently. Their Oct. 20 meeting will be with Mrs. Ann Gailina on New England ave.

The Well Baby Clinic will be conducted Friday, Oct. 10 at the Municipal Building between the hours of 10 and 11:30 a.m.

An enjoyable day was spent by 27 members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship Saturday. The group were guests of the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, where they made a tour of the campus, had luncheon, attended a pep rally and the football game between Wesleyan and Carroll University of Wisconsin. Transportation for the group was provided by Mrs. Roger Brattstrom, the Rev. Kenneth Crandall, James Marshall, James Ragsdale, and Kenneth Webster.

Early fall vacations to the Land of the Ozarks were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mosier of 68th court and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shawver of LeClaire ave. Both families returned last week.

Guests with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jensen on Sunday were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Jensen of Chicago, who have just finished their summer tourist season at Wild Rice Lake, Wis.

Mrs. Nancy Jensen and her mother, Mrs. Minnetta Kasten, motored to Coal City and Verona, last week to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson and son Warren of Elmhurst were guests at the P. L. Jochum home Thursday evening of last week.

Barbara Klaus of Elm Lane drive was hostess to six schoolmates who helped her celebrate her 11th birthday Saturday. Those attending were Adele Zobac, Linda Anderson, Jean Rapson, Mary Krol, Sandra Hanna and Donna Jensen. Barbara's tiny sister, Sandra Jean, age 3 months was the center of attention. Everyone enjoyed the usual party fare of birthday cake, ice cream and party games.

Donald C. Unzicker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Unzicker of 18045 Harlem ave., and John M. Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sherman of 17945 Sayre ave., graduated from recruit training Sept. 27 at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Sandra Siemsen of 16900 New England ave., was one of 24 students who have entered the Walther Memorial hospital, Chicago, School of Nursing.

The new class has just begun a six month pre-clinical training period which will be highlighted by the traditional capping ceremonies next Spring for those who successfully complete the course.

The three year residence program of intensive nurses training is climaxed by graduation indicating that each nurse is prepared for her State board examination to qualify as a registered nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Lunaburg, formerly of Evergreen Park, recently moved into their new home at 6637 Riverside dr. They are the parents of Mrs. Gordon Bey, 6542 Parkside dr.

Miss Margaret W. Buick of Dundee, Scotland recently returned to her homeland after spending a month visiting relatives and friends in America.

Two weeks of her stay were spent in Tinley Park in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neimi, 6607 Parkside dr. It was a delightful reunion for Mrs. Agnes Eadon, Mrs. Neimi's mother, who had not seen her niece for 30 years. Miss Buick, who is a civil service employee in Scotland, was thrilled with the trip, made by plane, and her stay in America.

Mrs. Eadon spent two months this summer with her daughter Hazel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Conrad and their three children, of Ardmore, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Evans of Arlington, S. D. are visiting their daughter the Walter Leeper family this week. Mrs. Jane Evans and daughters of Calumet City, Ind., were dinner guests Thursday, in the Leeper home.

Raymond Moley writes in Newsweek: "Almost anything with a money tag had a chance to pass the Senate—preposterous, jerry-built schemes masked under dishonest titles and with alleged purposes nobly phrased but unsupported by reason and need. Someone said that members left the scene of their ostentatious nonsense in a 'troubled mood.' Not half so troubled as the hoodwinked taxpayers and the thrifty whose savings have been looted by calculated inflation."

According to the Navy's "Hurricane Hunters," hurricanes normally move at a speed of 10 to 20 miles per hour, but they may travel much slower, particularly when changing course.

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

Critics are pointing out that the flight from fixed dollar obligations into common stocks is of itself creating a condition wherein further inflationary activity is inevitable.

We have not seen skyrocketing prices on a broad front, but rather a steady erosion of the purchasing power of the dollar which on a cumulative basis, is large. However, we have heard a great deal in the way of news releases and speeches from members of Congress as to the evils of inflation, but nothing of a concrete nature done to prove the spiral would not continue. Only men who are willing to become political martyrs are likely to actively promote actions which will be most unpopular to various segments of the population, and have some real effect. Investors are, on the whole, a practical group who do not expect to see many such political martyrs.

It is obvious that much of the investment in better grade common stock is today done with long range point of view.

As to the government defense and economic aid budget, this is controlled by the actions of Moscow and the Communist countries. We must, for our own survival, meet and checkmate the economic and political moves of the Communists as well as their inspired "little wars" all over the world.

The U. S. News and World Report of Oct. 3, 1958 lists six points, on world fronts, where the Communists are actively operating against the rest of the world in a struggle for control. The Communists have little regard for public opinion and no regard for their pledge word in treaty form. They have a big advantage over democracies in this kind of war.

All families dislike war and every mother is terrified by the idea of her sons being involved in war. This is true the world over. Economic war is, in the end, possibly more vicious and deadly than shooting wars, but the dramatic idea of shooting influences the democracies in clamor for peace and each appeasement makes the next situation more difficult with a heavier cost.

Elected government officials must recognize this situation regardless of their personal knowledge of the futility of appeasement. The black mail continues! Also the cost and depreciation of the monetary unit.

Labor uncertainties are clearing. Automobile industry is settling its labor troubles, but raises in this and the steel industry, are bringing about increased car costs altho small at this time. The wage increase is about 4 per cent. The average increase in per hour productivity of about 2 per cent! Other related industries will have to give comparable raises.

The escalator clauses in these wage settlements anchors the present wage to the present purchasing power of the dollar and decrease in that purchasing power, must be added to the labor costs. Such clauses are inflationary as any increase in other industries affects over all price level with wage increases under the escalator clause. The price wage spiral continues.

It is most difficult to arrive at any conclusion other than that the prices of better grade common stocks will be upward.

How many of these electric helpers have you added since 1947? ...asks LITTLE BILL

□ a □ b □ c □ d □ e □ f □ g □ h □ i □ j

You're an average family if—in the postwar years you've added six new electrical appliances. Shown here are a few typical examples

This is why you're using far more electricity nowadays than you did just a few years ago. And why life is a lot easier. But of all the things you buy today, electricity has gone up less than almost anything else

So, while your bill may be a little higher, electricity is actually doing nearly twice as much work for the money now as it did years ago.

See how little it costs to run each of these electric helpers.

- a—Electric Blanket—just 1½¢ all night. Gives warmth of 3 blankets, often weighs less than 1.
- b—Portable TV—2 hours for 1½¢. The world's finest entertainment for pennies a day.
- c—Air Conditioner—less than 3¢ an hour. This ½-ton unit cleans, cools, dehumidifies air in 2 big rooms.
- d—Radio—5 hours for 1¢. Relaxing entertainment for pennies a week.
- e—Sun Lamp—healthy tan in a week 1½¢. Like having all the good of the sun all winter.
- f—Electric Shaver, over 150 shaves 1¢. Clean, close and comfortable. And it costs so little.

Other appliances include:

- (g) Hair Dryer—Does 3 hair sets for 2¢.
- (h) 150-watt Lamp—Good reading light—over 2 hrs. for 1¢.
- (i) Electric Wall Heater—Quick heat to take the chill out of the air—4¢ an hour.
- (j) Electric Clock—the exact time, just 1¢ a week.

PTA Sponsors Parties for School Children First Friday Each Month

By MRS. EMIL WILLE
Frankfort 3161

The Parent Teacher Association of Ann Rutledge school sponsor parties for 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade pupils the first Friday evening of the month. The parties are held in the school basement under the direction of Mrs. Walter Neidringhaus, recreation chairman.

The children have elected their own officers. They are Randy Wheeler, president; Michael Delaney, treasurer; and Paul Komiss, secretary.

Committees are chosen and the children plan their parties which are well chaperoned.

Group games are played and refreshments are sold. The parties last from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The next will be held Nov. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Madsen Sr. of St. Petersburg, Fla., are spending a week with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Tyler and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Senkowski of Harrah, Okla., spent several days at the John Fedak home. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Nicolin of Prospect Heights spent Sunday with the John Fedaks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neidringhaus and family had dinner and spent the evening with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Neidringhaus of Chicago last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight C. Nicholson attended a surprise birthday party given in honor of their sister in law, Mrs. Ivan Nicholson, at Chicago. A brother in law, Charles Colohan, who has been a patient at Woods Memorial hospital at Milwaukee was able to come home for a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zum Mallen attended the 45th wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zum Mallen at their home in Flossmoor. There were about 50 guests present from Flossmoor, Chicago, Homewood and Frankfort.

A. L. Zum Mallen and David E. Tyler used their planes to take a group of friends to Hudson Bay in Canada for a week of fishing. Making the trip were Richard Weyant and son

The year's program is planned around four state and national goals with emphasis on better family living programs, careers and homemaking, international good will, and better home, school, and community beautification and civil defense.

"The girls are urged to participate in all these activities and earn degrees of achievement such as the junior home-maker degree, chapter home-maker degree, and state home-maker degree," Mrs. Dorothy Bentz, faculty sponsor, said.

A skit representing these activities was presented at the first meeting by officers of the club.

Other sponsors are Elaine Downing, Nancy Titchenal, and Sandra Montagnoli, home-making teachers.

Chapter mothers are Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. Catherine Smith.

A group of University of Minnesota researchers, reporting in the Journal of the American Medical Association, says that polio vaccination during pregnancy is especially important because it serves two purposes. It combats the "extraordinary susceptibility" of pregnant women to the disease, and prolongs their infant's passive immunity.

King's Daughters Plan Convention To be Held in Joliet Oct. 15-16

By ELIZABETH B. ANDERSON Lockport 886W2

At the Thursday meeting of the King's Daughters, Mrs. Lola Storm, president, announced the date of the State Convention. It will be held at the Ottawa Street Methodist church in Joliet on Oct. 15 and 16.

Mrs. Clare Cary was appointed voting delegate for the Circle and Mrs. Roy Hanson as the alternate delegate. All members are cordially invited to attend.

The County Convention will be held on Oct. 30 at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Joliet. This too is for all King's Daughters.

The Circle voted to purchase curtains for the kitchen at the Hannah Harwood Girls' club. This is county project of the King's Daughters. Mrs. Cary will handle the purchase.

On Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Storm and Mrs. F. J. Paddock attending a planning meeting of Circle presidents and delegates in the home of Mrs. George Alderman in Joliet, to help complete arrangements for the State convention, at which the County Circles will be hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Euel P. Austin of Joliet, former Homer residents, celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, Sept. 23. Each has attained the age of 89 years. When in Homer, Mr. Austin farmed and did custom threshing. After moving to Joliet, he was sexton at Elmhurst cemetery for several years and is now self-employed as a tool sharpener.

The couple have two sons, Gordon of Lockport and James of Joliet, and four daughters, Mrs. Robert Martin and Mrs. Otto Hills of Joliet, Mrs. David Gordon of Holland, Mich., and Mrs. Howard Russell of Plainfield. There are 14 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Angus, R R 2, are the parents of a daughter born Sept. 24 in Silver Cross hospital.

Announcement was made on Sept. 28 of the engagement of Judith Olsen and Raymond Karwoski. Miss Olsen is the daughter of the Earl Olsens of 143rd and Oak, while the future groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Karwoski Sr. of Chicago. The wedding date has not been announced.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jungles of California have been house guests for a few days in the home of their nephew and family, the Robert Jungles' of 151st st. They called on several Homer friends Thursday.

Mrs. Robert Shepherd Sr. accidentally fell from the rear steps as she was leaving Sunday school last Sunday morning. She sustained severe bruises but fortunately no bones were broken.

Robert Jungles is recovering from a broken foot caused by a 60 pound cake of salt falling on the foot as he was working at the Midwest Hatchery in Lockport. He gets about with the aid of crutches.

Charles Bergstrom of Chicago spent a few days in the Ray Carlson home last week. Several Homer people attended the dedication and 125th anniversary service at Marley church Sunday. Mrs. John Hollister was a guest soloist.

Mrs. Ray Carlson was substitute teacher Wednesday and Thursday at 33-C for Mrs. Harriet Fiddymont who was ill. On Friday Mrs. Carlson was a Chicago shopper.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Olsen have returned from a week's visit to New York where they attended a railroad convention.

Forest Board Buys More Land In So. Suburbs

(CNS) More new forest preserve acreage was purchased in the south suburbs during 1957 than in the north and west suburbs, according to the annual report of Lachlan W. MacLean, comptroller. The total was 786.95 acres south, compared with 645.295 north and 54.162 west.

Prices reached a new peak, with $2,075,068 paid for all of the 1,486 acres, or an average of $1,396 an acre, the report disclosed. During 1956 the 938 acres purchased cost $955,208, an average of $1,017 per acre, while during the 42 years the forest preserve district has been buying land $33,707,269 has been paid for 43,404 acres, an average of $776.

In the south suburbs in 1957, the most expensive per acre cost was $163,148 for 8 acres in Calumet township, or $19,840 an acre.

Palos township, already with the most forest preserve land in the county, added 219 acres costing $400,628 during 1957, for a total of 9,691 acres which cost $3,655,749.

Orland, adjoining, added 176,508 acres costing $227,062, for a total of 1,422 which cost $736,991.65.

Worth township, which has the least acreage in the south suburbs, added 151 acres costing $210,567, making a total of 394 acres which cost $523,673.

Bremen township added 126 acres costing $186,356, for a total of 3,097 acres which cost $1,965,438. Bloom township added 105 acres costing $100,094 for a total of 3,708 acres costing $2,061,207.

There were no additions in Thornton township, which has 2,705 acres costing $2,686,330.

wicki went to Momence Wednesday where they attended a party given in honor of Mrs. Nowicki and her birthday in the home of Mrs. Jetta Glow and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mills, Indian Mound drive, are the parents of a 7 pound, 1 ounce son, born Sept. 11 in Silver Cross hospital. He has been named Jeffrey Keith.

The Homer Fire Flies 4-H club met last Wednesday evening in the church dining room for their regular monthly meeting; Rev. Hanson is now acting as their leader, assisted by the Farm Bureau assistant adviser.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hasibar have moved to their new home on Bruce rd.

Mrs. Earl Burnworth who has been touring the west for a few weeks, returned home late Tuesday evening. Her son, Larry, who is with the Marines accompanied her home and will enjoy a month's furlough before departing for Hawaii where he expects to be stationed for two years.

POST-NUPTIAL SHOWER
Mrs. Kenneth Giltener was the guest of honor at a recent post-nuptial shower given by friends and neighbors at the Northwest Homer fire house. Many lovely gifts were presented.

Mrs. Giltener, the daughter of the Edwin Leins of 139th st. and Mr. Giltener, of Downers Grove, were married on June 27, before the groom left to enter the armed services. The bride is living with her parents for the present.

The Homer Volunteer Fire Department met at the Town Hall Monday evening of this week to elect officers for the coming year. Charles Cook of Rte. 7 has been elected fire chief and has appointed Donald Waldvogel and Frank Morris as his assistants. The present officers are: Harvey Ingersoll, president; Ted Czimmer, secretary, and William Bengston, treasurer.
